JUNIOR VARSITY NOTES

The Junior Varsity team's winning ways were on display again against a very determined squad from Olentangy Liberty. However, it was the Explorers who hung on to win 6-5 behind a great performance in the cage by goalie Alex Nawn. The JV returns to action on Tuesday versus Westlake.

VARSITY NOTES

Overall	Hudson's comeback in the 4 th quarter tied the game with 3:46 left, and had 2 chances to clinch victory, but both attempts failed and Hudson dropped a hard-fought game to Olentangy Liberty 8-7 in overtime. Hudson will host Westlake at Malson Field on Tuesday evening.
Offense	Hudson's offense sputtered at times during the game and made things easy for the Patriots defense. Turnovers, missed chances, and lack of aggressive moves to the cage took the Explorers out of their usual scoring routines. Cole Miller led the team with 3 goals. Max Cole contributed 3 assists.
Defense	Surrendering 4 early goals would have sunken most teams, but the defensive groups tightened up and gave up just 1 goal a period after the initial quarter. Stroud Corr made 11 stops in the cage. Danny Saxon scooped up a team high 5 ground balls.
Special Teams	Special teams were a factor as Hudson had 8 penalties, but the man down defense held ground giving up just 2 goals.
Game Balls	None
