Brecksville-Broadview Hts. Bees (12-4)	2	1	1	1	-	5
Hudson Explorers (14-5)	3	6	2	6	-	17

VARSITY NOTES

Overall	The Varsity team took a dominant 2 nd quarter and turned it into a 9-3 half-time lead. By running 31 players in the game, the Explorers ground down the visiting Bees and wrapped up the Regional Quarterfinal by a score of 17-5. Overall, 17 players recorded points in the game. The balance and depth played a huge part in the final outcome. Hudson will host St. Ignatius on Wednesday in the Regional Semi-final.
Offense	Offensively, Hudson's midfielders dodged early to the cage to get the Bees defensive to slide up field. By the end of the game, the visitors were worn out by the overpowering offense and volume of shots. Leading the way for Hudson was Anthony Rightnour with 5 goals and 2 assists. Joe Graf finished with 3 goals. Kevin Callahan and Angelo Donatelli each had 2 goals.
Defense	Defensively, Hudson played very well in owning the matchups and limited the Bees offense to just 20 shots. Danny Saxon continued his tough play with 5 ground balls. Nathan Slater had 2 ground balls. Stroud Corr came up with 2 saves. Matt Withem had 2 saves as well.
Special Teams	The face-off groups are showing improvement each and every game. They won 14 of 25 in the game. The man down team was 5 of 6.
