VARSITY NOTES

Overall	Hudson traveled to take on fellow Suburban League member Brecksville-Broadview Heights on a cold and windy March evening and put up six first-quarter goals on the Bees. By halftime, the score was 9-1 and Hudson cruised to a 15-2 victory. All 23 dressed players on the Hudson roster saw action in the team's last game before spring break.
Offense	The offense fired on all cylinders as ten players found the back of the net with Pat Burdett (3 goals) leading the way. Joe Graf, Anthony Rightnour, and Brady Ludewig each had two goals while single tallies were recorded by Blake Lori, Mason Prisk, Adam Dunne, Angelo Donatelli, and defensemen Matt Wymierski and Jack Burdett. Merrick Widdoes (2) and Danny Saxon added assists.
Defense	The Hudson defense was really challenged by the Brecksville offense. Matt Withem had 2 saves and Alex Nawn came up with 6 stops. Stephen Russell led the defense with 3 ground balls. Matt Rudy, Collin Dickens, and Nathan Slater played physical defense and forced the Bees into several turnovers.
Special Teams	Angelo Donatelli and Alex Beegle won 11 of 20 face-off draws.
Game Balls	Matt Wymierski played tough defense and scored the first goal of his career.
